

WHAT HAPPENED OUTSIDE CHICAGO

St. Louis, Mo.—John Crowley, houseman, double of former President Taft, run over and killed by auto.

Readville, Pa.—1,200 New Haven employes at car shops, laid off three weeks ago, returned to work today. Railroad officials say full operation will be continued.

Newark, N. J.—Chief of police after investigation said he found no trace of child resembling Catherine Winters in gypsy camp near here.

Farmersville, Ia.—Allen Turner, negro, lynched by mob because he attacked J. J. McDougald, a farmer.

Fort Worth, Tex.—Mrs. John Carillo, wife of Mexican shoe merchant in North Fort Worth, has asked assistance in releasing her husband from Mexican jail.

Washington, D. C.—Vice President Marshall has a new vest, made of the same sort of stuff as Persian rugs, woven 200 years ago. Senator J. Ham Lewis is weeping with envy.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Soft coal mines in central district of Pennsylvania will close Friday if working agreement between miners and operators is not signed before that time. 75,000 men affected.

Coffeyville, Kan.—Cloudburst and hailstorm swept this section, doing heavy damage. Telephone and telegraph wires out of commission.

Denver, Col.—Mrs. Gertrude Lee, chairman of Democratic state central committee, resisting men seeking to oust her, says committee next year will be mainly composed of women.

Tarrytown, Ind.—Rather than disappoint an old friend, John T. McCutcheon chartered special train from Chicago here to keep appointment when he missed scheduled train. Was the only passenger.

New York.—"This show is pulled by order of the mayor," shouted through megaphone at 12:01 today scared society ragers at Hotel Astor, where big charity ball was on. April fool.

Albany, N. Y.—Gov. Glynn is planning to go to San Francisco with N. Y. Panama-Pacific exposition commission to lay cornerstone for state building at exposition grounds.

Toledo, O.—Street Railway Co. has agreed to try out city council's three-cent fare ordinance.

Boston, Mass.—Miss Helen M. Cudahy, daughter of Patrick Cudahy, millionaire packer, today began three months' probation at local hospital. Will have to sweep and scrub floors.

Buffalo, N. Y.—Fourteen firemen suspended by D. L. & W. R. R. for refusing to take out Gould coupler works special trains to Depew, reinstated. No change in strike situation at Depew. One thousand soldiers still on guard.

Wichita, Kan.—Fire in Atlanta, Kan., burned entire block. Damage $80,000.

Richland, Ore.—Investigation being made of alleged attempt to poison Rev. Frank Hopkins, Methodist minister, his wife and four children. Salt, baking powder and lard in pantry sprinkled with poison.

St. Paul, Minn.—One woman killed and two men and girl not expected to live as result of gas escaping from soft coal stove.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Mrs. Mary Barski and Mrs. Anna Gimbel arrested charged with shoplifting in Gimbel's department store.

Marinette, Wis.—Mrs. Leon LaPorte perhaps fatally injured when air-tight stove exploded and set her clothing afire.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Charged with having stolen $20,000 in two registered packages being sent to N. Y. banking houses from St. Paul, Wm. R. Baum, postoffice clerk, arrested.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Rep. Wm. Richardson of Alabama dead.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Representation of United Mine Workers of America to international convention will re-